

31st July 2021

Dear All of the Wah Yan Communities,

After a process of consultation and discernment, the Jesuit Chinese Province has just announced that Fr. Clement Tsui, S.J. (徐立人神父) will succeed Fr. Stephen Chow, S.J. as the Supervisor of Wah Yan College, Hong Kong and Wah Yan College, Kowloon, effective from 1st September 2021.

Born in Hong Kong in 1970, Fr. Tsui was enrolled as a student at Wah Yan College, Hong Kong, from 1983-1988, followed by further studies in Australia. After working in the banking industry, he joined the Society of Jesus in 2005; he was subsequently ordained a priest in Hong Kong in 2015. About his experience in the educational ministry, Fr. Tsui taught at Wah Yan College, Kowloon, from 2009-2011. He is the current School Chaplain of Wah Yan College, Hong Kong and Chairman of the Education Commission of the Jesuit Chinese Province (耶穌會中華省教育委員會).

Fr. Tsui is a committed Jesuit educator with ample local and international experience. With God's blessings, your support and collaboration, we are confident that the two Wah Yans are in good hands. The Society of Jesus is committed to providing quality Jesuit education, multi-dimensional and formative experiences to our students in Hong Kong.

With gratitude and very best wishes,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Stephen Chow, S.J.'.

Fr. Stephen Chow, S.J.
Chairman of Jesuit Education Board (HK)
Provincial of the Chinese Province, the Society of Jesus
