

九龍華仁書院
WAH YAN COLLEGE, KOWLOON
A JESUIT SECONDARY SCHOOL

26 January 2024

Dear Fellow Wahyanites and Friends of Wah Yan,

Join Us in Supporting and Celebrating the Centenary of Wah Yan College, Kowloon

Since the founding of Wah Yan College, Kowloon by Mr. Peter Tsui in 1924, the selfless love and support of our Jesuits and teachers have brought Wahyanites social upward mobility, shaping many of us into leaders in different fields all over the world. Our fond memories of the School, buoyant through rain and shine, formed the kinship of Wahyanites that transcends space and time.

In 2024, the School is celebrating its Centennial Anniversary, with a view to steering our young Wahyanites to new heights through quality Jesuit education, values and the spirit of being “men for and with others”, as well as innovative teaching programmes.

With the theme “蒙恩百載·格致傳薪 – Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam (AMDG)”, amplifying the motto of the Society of Jesus, we aim to gather Wahyanites and friends of different generations to witness what the School has anchored over the last century, and how and where we journey into the next. A range of meaningful events are in the pipeline, which will be launched from September 2024 onwards. Renowned scholars, distinguished guests and alumni will be invited to join these events to share our joy and gratitude together. The major events are highlighted below for your reference. For the full event lineup, please refer to the school website.
