English Debating Coach

We are seeking a passionate and experienced English Debating Coach to inspire and develop our students' critical thinking, public speaking, and argumentative skills, while fostering teamwork, intellectual curiosity, and a love for academic discourse.

Responsibilities

- Implement comprehensive training programs for the school English Debating Team.
- Coach students for inter-school and other debating competitions, tournaments, and public speaking events (e.g. HKSSDC, Junior/Senior SDC and parliamentary-style debates etc.).
- Mentor students to improve their research techniques, analytical thinking, rhetoric, and rebuttal skills.
- Promote a supportive team environment and encourage ethical debating practices, fair play, and intellectual humility.
- Provide students with feedback, track their progress, and ensure they are updated on debate trends.

Qualifications

- Experience as a competitive debater or accredited adjudicator/coach.
- Experience in coaching English debate.
- Deep knowledge of major debating formats and current global issues.
- Prior coaching experience at secondary school level is an advantage.
- Excellent command of English and able to teach in English.
- Responsible, professional, and able to work well with students and staff.
